
Rajashree Datta

Risk

New York

Rajashree is global head of Liquidity Risk. She is responsible for liquidity risk policy at the firm, which includes focusing on the identification, measurement and monitoring of liquidity risk. Rajashree is a member of the Firmwide Asset Liability Committee, Firmwide New Activity Committee, Firmwide Risk Council and Risk Governance Committee. She is co-head of the Asian Professionals Network. She is also an firmwide champion for Launch With GS, Goldman Sachs' $1 billion commitment to invest in companies and investment managers with diverse leadership.

Rajashree joined Goldman Sachs in 2000 as an analyst in the Investment Banking Division, transferred to Corporate Treasury within the Finance Division in 2003 and moved to the Risk Division in 2018. She was named managing director in 2010 and partner in 2020.

Rajashree earned a bachelor's degree in Economics and Political Science from

Amherst College in 2000.

