

GOLDMAN SACHS: The GS Guide to Dallas

Our Dallas office is our second largest in the US and located in the Dallas Arts District downtown, the largest arts district in the US.

Dallas is the ninth largest city in the United States

Our offices are in the Trammell Crow Center on Ross Avenue

We take pride in our unique restaurant scene, within three blocks of our office are 40+ dining options

Goldman Sachs partners with Dallas B.R.A.I.N. (Business Resource and Information Network) to grow the city's small businesses

The world's first frozen margarita machine was invented in Dallas!

Our colleagues enjoy free access to the Nasher Sculpture Center, just across the street

The award-winning Dallas Trail Plan has more than 160 miles of the USA's best urban hike and bike trails

125,000 people attend the St. Patrick's Day parade/block party every year

State Fair of Texas is held in Dallas!

The Dallas Arts District is the largest urban arts district in the USA

Quotes:

- "We share a building with other firms and we invite them to our inclusion network events" – Mindy, Asset Management
- "The annual office cornhole tournament – a great way to meet!"- Elizabeth, Human Capital Management
- "Two of my favorite aspects of the city are the low cost of living and cultural diversity" – Jason, Human Capital Management

Our Favorite Views:

- John F. Kennedy Memorial Plaza
- Fort Worth Stockyards
- AT&T Stadium

Dallas is Home to:

- Football team, Dallas Cowboys
- Basketball team, Dallas Mavericks
- Baseball team, Texas Rangers
- Hockey team, Dallas Stars

See yourself here. Click the apply button on our students or professionals pages to explore opportunities in Dallas and around the world.